GRANT PROSECUTION.
RUEF TO ASK
MORE TIME.

Grafter Has Hard Work to Find Counsel.

Calhoun Insists That Lang-
don Keep Promise.

Demands That He Be Placed
on Trial Next.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Abraham Ruef will plead for further time
when he comes up before Superior Judge Lawlor at 10 o'clock tomorrow, at which time the date of his first trial on one of the many indictments returned against him by the grand jury is to be set.

State Senator George R. Keane
insisted tonight that arrangements for the array of attorneys that will commence Ruef's counsel have not yet been completed, and that it would be necessary to again ask the court to grant
a few days more time to the defend-ent.

The absence of Henry Ach, retained by Ruef as chief counsel, who will not return from Los Angeles until tomorrow night or Wednesday, will be another reason given to the court by Ruef for asking for further delay.

It is said Ruef is experiencing much difficulty in obtaining counsel of the highest ability and reputation that he desires for conducting his defense.

Ruef is endeavoring to gain
at least one of the fourteen indictments charging him with bribery,
which were returned yesterday, is insistent upon immediate trial, and is ready to the new plan of the grand jury to try Ruef ahead of him.

When T. L. Ford, general counsel of the United Railroads, was acquitted last week on one of the fourteen indictments charging him with bribery,
he announced in court that it was the prosecution's intention to place
Calhoun on trial next.

When the break occurred with Ruef,
Dist. Atty. Langdon decided to rush Ruef to trial ahead of Calhoun, but the latter declared today that now that he has returned from New York, he will insist that the prosecution keep its promise of placing him on trial at once.

Dist. Atty. Langdon, however, has determined that Ruef be tried first. Counsel for Calhoun will demand that the prosecution fix
the date of the street railway men's trial when the United Railroads men come up before Judge Lawlor
tomorrow.

According to Dist. Atty.
Langdon, is expected here from Portland, Ore., tomorrow. In an interview with the Associated Press today, denied the statement attributed to him that Henry would act as special assistant to the United States Attorney-General in the landmark cases.

LATHAN STAYS EAST.
"What I did say," said Langdon,
"was that Henry, at the conclusion of the case in which he is now engaged at Portland, will devote his whole time to the San Francisco bribery-graft case until they have all been disposed of."

No trace has yet been found of Alec Lathan, the missing witness and former chauffeur for Ruef, who for the second time has mysteriously disappeared. While the District Attorney and Special Agent Burns openly admit that either Ruef or the United Railroads defendants induced Lathan to leave, Ruef ridicules the idea, and states that the prosecution knows where he is, but does not want him to testify in this trial.

Lathan was under surveillance of three of Burns's detectives, and said today that it seemed probable to him that the young chauffeur should have been able to escape.

The cases of Abraham Ruef and former Chief of Police Dittan, accused of bribery and conspiracy in connection with the running of houses of ill-fame today continued by Judge Dunne next Tuesday.

HABEAS CORPUS FOR GLASS.
Superior Court Issues Writ on Showing by Physician That Prisoner Is Dying.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—A writ of habeas corpus was issued this morning by the Supreme Court in the case of Louis Glass, convicted of bribery,
which asks for his release on showing made before Judge Lawlor.
It is made returnable on January 29
at 10 o'clock.

The petition submitted to the Supreme Court sets forth on the showing that Morrissey and others that Glass is ill and cannot live and is therefore entitled to bail.

In granting the writ, Chief Justice
said that the presence of the defendant in court will be dispensed with in this case if the prisoner is too ill to appear.

INDIAN MUTINY PREDICTED.
Ruef Said to Be Getting Over Idea
That White Man Is Their Logical Master.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.
NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—That the natives of India are preparing to shake the British yoke is the opinion of William Thode of the German Nordenfleders, just in from the East.

Thode says that throughout the East the natives are getting over the idea that the white man is their logical master, and are preparing to declare independence. The 300,000,000 natives of India, he believes, are preparing to blow for freedom, and he expects a coming soon.

Success of Japan in the war between China and Japan has much to do with the changed conditions in the East. He says:

"The natives throughout the East
are looking upon us as the natural master. It is generally believed that the natives that what did the Indians can do.
It will not be very long, before there will be serious trouble all over Asia."

To Hear Rebate Cases.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The Supreme Court of the United States today will hear the rebate cases of the Chicago, Burbank and Quincy, and the Chicago Railroad companies for writs
of habeas corpus in the government cases
on charges of reclamation districts.
The action of the court will be decided on the cases to the court for review.

REMARKABLE.
BANK OFFICIAL
CAUSES WRECK.

SENDS LETTERS TO FRIENDS AD-VISING WITHDRAWAL.

Effect Is Instantaneous and Disastrous and Deposits Melt Away Like Snow Beneath Sun When Out of Town Institutions Call on National of North America.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Some remarkable details touching the closing of the National Bank of North America came to light today, when the owners of $2,448,000 deposits that the bank retained out of the $19,500,000 deposits reported last August, began asking why the institution had been forced out of existence
so summarily last Saturday afternoon.

It developed that the crisis in the bank's affairs was precipitated by the action last week of one of the high officers of the bank, who sent out rush
letters to his friends, advising them
of the bank's condition and suggesting that they withdraw their balances.

The effect of this action on the bank's deposits was most disastrous, and explained the heavy debit balances which the bank has recently been confronted with at the clearinghouse.

As soon as this step became known
those in touch with the bank's affairs
knew that there was nothing else to do but go into liquidation, and the decision was hurriedly reached last Saturday afternoon when the Comptroller of the Currency was asked to come at once.

The private letters of advice referred to were sent out on the closing days of last week, and since most of the letters went to out-of-town banks, which carried considerable balances with the National Bank of North America, the effect was instantaneous, and the few deposits that the directors had succeeded in retaining, melted away like snow beneath the sun.

ROB POSTOFFICE FOUR TIMES.
RENO, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the fourth time in two years, since Charles Beemer has been postmaster at Sparks, the postoffice
there was entered and the safe dynamited by burglars who took away $600
worth of stamps and coin.

The burglary was not reported until the arrival today of the Federal inspector. In the safe were several pouches of registered mail, but they were not disturbed.

From the manner in which the burglars have been committed, the authorities say the same parties are guilty of all four crimes, and Federal detectives expect to find the criminals
close at home.

LONG CHASE ENDED.
TACOMA, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Monroe T. Brown, charged with having stolen an express package containing $2,600 from the Tacoma office of the Northern Pacific Express Company, where he was employed, and who escaped from Deputy Sheriff Stenson in September in Spokane, was brought to Tacoma by Sheriff Morris.
He was captured in Helena, where he was working as a truck driver.

After his escape in Spokane, Brown hid for three days. While he was in hiding, the Great Northern train was robbed. While attempting to escape from Spokane, Brown was surrounded near Sandpoint, Idaho, by a posse in search of the train robbers, and was fired upon. He hid in the swamp, and afterward worked for two months on a ranch.

MORE GOLD STRIKES.
TACOMA, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Some dispatches say that notwithstanding all predictions that First, Second and Third Beaches have been petted out, strikes continue to be made.
Every week sees some new find, and since fall two miles of Third Beach has been changed from prospect ground to paying mines.

The theory is now advanced that with time pay will be located for a great distance east and perhaps many miles west of Nome on the ancient beach lines.

Mining men are happy, and money
will pour into machinery to prospect the beaches for many miles east and west of Nome. Most of the pay, however, is east of Nome, where at least twenty miles of beach will be prospected with machinery this year.

SIXTIETH CONGRESS.
PLANNING FOR EMERGENCIES.

Many Provisions Are Added
to Financial Bill.

Desire Is to Provide Range of Flexibility.

Senate Awaiting Data from the Treasurer.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The completed text of the Aldrich financial bill, which will be submitted to the full committee after a meeting has been held to go over the data from the Treasury Department, will contain the amendments that have been tentativ-ly agreed to at the various meetings of the committee on finance.

There will also be a series of small provisions added to the bill which have been devised to make it work smoothly as an emergency measure. It will be made mandatory upon the Secretary of the Treasury to make and keep on hand a supply of notes which can be quickly issued upon call.

The Secretary of the Treasury will be required to proceed immediately upon the law taking effect to gather data concerning the new class of securities provided in the measure. The bonds of every city in the country will be inspected and their worth stated in treasury reports, as will be done with any securities that are at any time liable to come within the workings of any emergency currency law.

It has been settled that the distribution of the currency will be by States, instead of districts, as formerly proposed.

The financial data required of the treasury is expected to reach the Senate on Wednesday, according to Senator Aldrich. He is confident his measure will be reported before the end of the week.

The Democratic members of the Finance Committee will prepare their substitute for the Aldrich bill as soon as the data arrives from the Treasury Department. The proposition of Senator Bailey that the government make emergency deposits in designated depositories will probably be the main feature of the bill.

IGNORE RECOMMENDATIONS.
Congress Will Not Take Up Philippines
Sugar and Tobacco Question at This Session.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive
Dispatch.] Representative Payne, Republican floor leader of the House and chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and Representative Dalsell, member of the Committee on Rules and second man on the Ways and Means Committee, announced today that no effort will be made on the part of the committee to force consideration of legislation along the lines of Secretary of War Taft's recommendations for the free importation of sugar and tobacco from the Philippines to the United States.

The Taft report was sent to Congress
by the President today carrying with it the approval of the leaders of the House realize that it would be useless to bring up this stubborn subject

which would mean long debates, no results, and a waste of time. It is understood that the Senate Philippines Committee has served notice on the House committee that there would be nothing doing during the present session. As stated in these dispatches
there are only three out of fourteen members of the Senate committee who favor the measure.

Representative Payne was asked today when a meeting of the committee would be called to give a hearing to the representatives of the sugar and tobacco interests. He replied that he did not know and could not promise that the matter would be given any consideration this session. Representative Dalsell stated almost positively that it was his opinion that the bills
for reduction would go over until next session.

SENATE DISCUSSES SLAVERY.
Secretary Taft Is Charged With Having Knowledge of Human Traffic in Philippines.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Greatly to the surprise of every one, the subject of slavery was introduced in the Senate today.

Secretary Taft was directly charged with having a knowledge of slavery in the Philippine Islands. The debate was made pertinent by the sections of the bill revising the criminal code of the United States, which provides penalties for dealing in slaves.

Mr. Hale asserted that such provisions should be stricken out, as he regarded slavery as obsolete in the United States and he could see no reason for referring to it.

Senator Heyburn, in charge of the bill, declared that not only is there in-moral traffic in white slaves, but that coolie labor in the form of practical slavery does exist, and added that actual human slavery is still maintained
in the Philippines.

Mr. Lodge made a statement to dis-prove the charges of slavery in the Philippines.

PROBABLE COST
KEEPS GROWING.

PROBLEM NOW IS WHEN LIMIT
WILL BE REACHED.

From the Original Estimate of $140,000,000 for Constructing the Panama Canal, It Has Now Increased to $300,000,000, According to Guess of Col. George W. Goethals.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive
Dispatch.] The wonder is growing among Senators and Representatives on what basis the original estimates
fixed the probable cost of the Panama Canal.

There is a half-way suspicion that the first estimates did not know their business or were afraid to give out a truth that they thought might be appealing. With the characteristic bluntness of a soldier, Col. George W.
Goethals has said that he can only guess at the total cost of the canal, and that he believes it will not exceed $250,000,000, excluding the original purchase price.

As another has put it, "the estimated cost of the Panama Canal keeps pace
in the ascending scale with the cost of living. Every year the price the United States will have to pay for the canal increases."

First estimates put it as low as $140, 000,000. Then came what was called an authentic estimate which showed that the country would have to spend $140,000,000 before the canal could be completed. Col. Goethals's guess is $250,000,000, and he is frank to say that the limit may have to be raised again.

In speaking of the period it will take to complete the canal, Col. Goethals said it was expected that the work would be done in the time originally estimated, or by January 1, 1915, at the latest. Then he said that the hope was to finish it sooner, but he declined to make a statement as to the exact date. He admitted frankly that the difficulties which might be encountered
are not known.

THAW TRIAL. NEW PHRASE IS EMPLOYED.

Thaw Is Victim of "Manic Depressive" Insanity.

His Condition Thus Described by Expert Witness.

Case Goes to Jury Wednesday Night or Thursday.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The Thaw defense closed its case today with "manic depressive" insanity as the explanation of the death of Stanford White at the hands of Thaw.

Justice Dowling desired to know the exact nature of "manic depressive" insanity, and if the attacks were likely to recur. He also asked if a person suffering from this form of insanity would be likely to commit suicide.

He learned that it was a recurrent form of mental disorder, the attacks coming suddenly and without warning, a period of insanity being followed by a period of complete sanity, and then by another lucid interval. It seemed that the presiding judge was securing information upon which to base judicial action in case a verdict of not guilty on account of insanity, or of a straight acquittal. Even in this latter event, it was pointed out that Justice Dowling would have the right to have Thaw committed for examination.

END DRAWS NEAR.

Tomorrow the prosecution will begin its evidence in rebuttal and the case will go to the jury by Wednesday night or Thursday noon. Dist. Atty. Jerome tomorrow morning will apply for the appointment of a commission to take the testimony of Abraham Hummel, the convicted lawyer who is confined in the penitentiary on Blackwell's island, and who is said to be too ill to appear in court.

Mr. Littleton of the defense said he would oppose any such action, whereupon Justice Dowling announced it necessary he would go to the island himself tomorrow night, in company with the defendant and his counsel, to preside at the taking of Hummel's testimony. The jury, it was said, would not be compelled to take the oath trip across the river.

Thaw seemed delighted with the prospect of the outing—even to the grim shores of the Hudson river colony—and smiled broadly at the court's suggestion.

Dist. Atty. Jerome read from the affidavit, made by Dr. Wagner before the Lunacy Commission last year, giving conversations which tended to show that the defendant had a distinct recollection of occurrences on the roof garden immediately preceding the tragedy.

FAMILY PHYSICIAN TESTIFIES.

Dr. Charles Francis Bingham, the Thaw family physician of Pittsburgh, was put in witness chair when court opened today.

Dr. Bingham told of the early symptoms of nervousness in Thaw, saying he was first called to attend the boy when he was 3 years of age. At that time his nervousness often bordered on convulsions, and attacks usually followed various children's disorders. Thaw slept badly as a child, requiring a relay of nurses most of the time.

Dr. Bingham said that in the fall of 1903 he was called to attend Harry Thaw in Pittsburgh and treated him for nervousness and melancholia. This was after Thaw's trip abroad with Evelyn Nesbitt. The witness said he saw Thaw several times in the Tombs after his arrest and the defendant always referred to the Hudson garden incident as the "act of providence."

Thaw's acts and appearance in the prison impressed the witness as irrational. It was of Dr. Bingham's opinion that Thaw did not know the nature or quality of his act or that the act was wrong.

Dr. Evans and Jelliffe were then called and each stated the opinion that Thaw did not know the nature or quality of his act or that the act was wrong.

Justice Dowling also questioned Dr. Jelliffe as to the symptoms of "manic depressive" insanity.

Dr. Jelliffe was asked to explain "manic depressive" insanity to the jury. One of the foreign physicians having asked this term to Thaw's outbreaks abroad. The witness said it was a circular form of insanity where periods of depression or melancholia were followed by a period of mania, the same process recurring from time to time.

Justice Dowling asked a series of questions to the witness, evidently for the purpose of his own guidance in the event of a verdict of acquittal on the ground of insanity, when it is in the discretion of the court to commit Thaw to an asylum for the criminally insane.

EVELYN THAW SHOWS FORTITUDE ON WITNESS STAND.

MRS. HARRY K. THAW

dis service and for a time a practicing physician in Rome. Dr. Burton-Browne constantly referred to himself as a "medical man" rather than a doctor. It was in March, 1902, that the witness was called to attend Thaw in Rome. He diagnosed the case as one of simple or mild mania. There was no trace of alcoholism.

Dist. Atty. Jerome, on cross-examination, asked: "How long did Thaw's mania last?"

"About thirty-six hours," "That's all," said Mr. Jerome.

Next came Dr. Maurice Gault of Paris, who gave his testimony through the official court interpreter. He attended Thaw in Paris in the spring of 1904, in which he attempted suicide by swallowing laudanum.

Dr. Gault described Thaw's condition but said he had not diagnosed it as laudanum poisoning. At first he thought it was a poisonous poison.

Mrs. Littleton of the defense said with the exception of the testimony of witnesses who had just testified, there was no evidence of insanity.

Dr. Smith of Jelliffe of Columbia University was sworn and it was agreed that the question should be read to him. Dr. Charles G. Wagner of Birmingham and Dr. Evans of Morris Plains, N. J. at the same time.

READS HYPOTHETICAL QUESTION. Mr. Littleton began to read the question to the experts and to the jury at 12:30 p.m. He had read for ten minutes only when recess was ordered. It took him an hour and ten minutes to read the question.

A half-hour recess followed and then Dr. Chas. G. Wagner, Superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane at Binghamton, N. Y., was called.

Dr. Wagner said that as the result of his examination of Thaw in the Tombs, he concluded the defendant was of unsound mind. In answer to the hypothetical question, Dr. Wagner said he believed, from the facts set forth therein, that Harry Thaw on the night of June 25, 1906, when he shot and killed Stanford White, was suffering from such a defect of reason as not to know the nature or quality of his act or that the act was wrong.

HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS GO FOR FOREIGN TITLES.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] More than 500 American girls have married titled foreigners and a careful statistician has figured that a trifle more than $200,000,000 has been taken over seas through Cupid's influence. This amount does not include the fortune of Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, who married Count Szechenyi of Hungary today.

Not only have the marriages of American heiresses filled the depleted coffers of foreign nobles, but many of the fair Americans have presented their husbands with heirs to inherit the titles. Also many American wives become prominent in politics and society of foreign countries, notably those who have married Italian nobles.

But the record of infelicitous international marriages is very appalling and the divorce court history of the past few years teems with the names of titled foreigners who married rich American girls. There are few of these cases in which the American wife did not bring suit either for separation or divorce.

Some of the matches have been love matches and in these instances, with few exceptions, the American wives have been happy. But there are the exceptions that prove the rule. Unhappiness, shame and ignominy have come in most of the international marriages.

The most recent hearse to sue for a divorce was the Countess of Castellane, who was Miss Anna Gould. This was a love match that ended disastrously. The marriage of Consuelo Vanderbilt to the Duke of Marlborough was another unfortunate alliance.

Miss May Goelet, who married the Duke of Roxburgh in May, 1907, was one of the wealthiest American heiresses to marry a titled foreigner. This union has apparently been a happy one. The meeting is to be held at 2 o'clock of Miss Helena Zimmerman of Cincinnati to the Duke of Manchester.

Miss Alice Thaw, sister of Harry Thaw, who became Countess of Yarmouth; Cornelia Martin, who became Countess of Craven; Miss Mary Leiter of Chicago who became Lady Curzon; Marguerite "Daisy" Leiter, her sister, who became Countess of Suffolk; Miss Helen Morton, daughter of Levi P. Morton, former Vice-President, who became Duchess De Valencay; Miss Eva Bryant McKay, who became the Princess Colonna; Miss Haggis, who became the Countess of Fife; and Miss Clara Huntington, who became the Princess Halstead, were some of the American heiresses who became their husbands million-dollar dowries. And so runs the list through the more than 500 names.

UNEMPLOYED FORM UNION. Permanent Organization Will Demand Twenty-three Million-Dollar Bond Issue.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The "organized labor unemployed league" has been made a permanent organization, with C. D. Knight, of the local No. 22, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, as president.

The league has resolved to make a formal demand upon the Board of Supervisors for the issuance of $23,000,000 of uncolored bonds which were voted four years ago for the benefit of the unemployed working men in the city.

The bonds were declared legal by the Supreme Court and it was decided to ask that they be issued. The league of one, two, five and ten dollars, for the payment of work of cleaning up the city, building sewers and schools, and it was unanimously decided that the organization do all in its power to urge the acceptance of the bonds as payment for labor.

DRAFT PROSECUTION.

RUEF TO ASK MORE TIME.

Griffith Has Hard Work to Find Counsel.

Calhoun Insists That Langdon Keep Promise.

Demands That He Be Placed on Trial Next.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Abraham Ruef will plead for further time when he comes up before Superior Judge Lator at 10 o'clock tomorrow, at which time the date of his trial will be set.

The absence of Henry Ach, retained by Ruef as chief counsel, who will not return from Los Angeles until tomorrow night or Wednesday, will be another reason given to the court by Ruef for asking for further delay.

It is said Ruef is experiencing much difficulty in obtaining counsel of the caliber, ability and reputation that he desires for conducting his defense.

While Ruef is endeavoring to gain time, Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, who returned to New York yesterday, is insisting on immediate trial, and is endeavoring to get the new plan of the trial set on foot.

Calhoun Insistent.

When T. L. Ford, general counsel of the United Railroads, was acquitted December on one of the fourteen indictments charging him with bribery, he announced in court that it was the prosecution's intention to place Calhoun on trial next.

When the break occurred with Ruef, Dist. Atty. Langdon decided to rush Ruef to trial ahead of Calhoun, but the latter returned today that now that he has returned from New York, he will insist that the prosecution place Calhoun on trial first.

Dist. Atty. Langdon, however, has determined that Ruef be tried first, and Calhoun will be tried next. Calhoun's counsel has demanded that the prosecution fix the date of the street railway magnate's trial when the United Railroads came up before Judge Lator.

According to Dist. Atty. Langdon, it is expected here from Portland some time next week. Langdon, in an interview with the Associated Press today, denied the statement attributed to him that Henry would be retained as a special assistant to the United States Attorney-General in the land-lab cases.

LATHAN STAYS BEST.

"What I did say," said Langdon, "was that Henry, at the conclusion of the case in which he is now engaged in Portland, will devote his whole time to the case of the United Railroads."

It has yet been found of late that the missing witness and former chauffeur for Ruef, who for the second time has mysteriously disappeared. While the District Attorney's Special Agent Burns openly says that either Ruef or the United Railroads defendants induced Lathan to leave the case, the prosecution knows there is a but does not want him to stay in this trial.

Langdon declares that Lathan was under surveillance of three of Bureau's detectives, and said today that it seemed dangerous to him that the young chauffeur should have been able to leave the city.

In the case of Abraham Ruef and former Chief of Police Dinan, accused of conspiracy and conspiracy in connection with the running of houses of ill-fame, today continued by Judge Dunne until next Tuesday.

REARER CORPUS FOR GLASS.

San Francisco Court Issues Writ on Showing by Physician That Prisoner Is Dying.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—A writ of habeas corpus was issued this morning by the Supreme Court in the case of Louis Glass, convicted of bribery, who asks for bail denied on showing made before Judge Lator.

The writ was made returnable on January 30 and will be argued at the time by the prisoner's attorneys.

The petition submitted to the Supreme Court sets forth on the showing that Morrissey and others that Glass had and cannot live and is therefore entitled to bail.

Chief Justice said that the presence of the prisoner in court would be a disgrace in this case if the prisoner is too ill to appear.

INDIAN MUTINY PREDICTED.

San Said to Be Getting Over Idea That White Man Is Their Logical Master.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—That the natives of India are preparing to shake the British yoke is the opinion of William Rhoads of the German Consulate, just in from the Punjab.

He says that throughout the natives are getting over the idea that the white man is their logical master, and are preparing to declare independence. The 200,000 natives of the Punjab are, he believes, preparing to blow for freedom, and he expects to come soon.

Success of Japan in the war has led him to believe that the natives with the changed conditions in the East. He says:

"The Punjab district agitators are looking upon the natives as the natural master. It is generally believed among the natives that what the white man did, the Indians can do, and it will not be very long, I believe, before there will be serious trouble all over Asia."

To Hear Rebate Cases.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The Supreme Court of the United States today heard the case of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, against the Chicago and North Western Railroad companies for writ of habeas corpus in the government cases filed on charges of granting rebates. The action of the court will be the case to the court for review.

REMARKABLE. BANK OFFICIAL CAUSES WRECK.

SENDS LETTERS TO FRIENDS ADVISING WITHDRAWAL.

Effect is instantaneous and disastrous and Deposits Melt Away Like Snow Beneath Sun When Out of Town Institutions Call on National of North America.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Some remarkable details touching the closing of the National Bank of North America came to light today, when the owners of $2,440,000 deposits that the bank retained out of the $19,500,000 deposits reported last August, began asking why the institution had been forced out of existence so summarily last Saturday afternoon.

It developed that the crisis in the bank's affairs was precipitated by the action last week of one of the high officers of the bank, who sent out rush letters to his friends, advising them of the bank's condition and suggesting that they withdraw their balances.

The effect of this action on the bank's deposits was most disastrous, and explained the heavy debit balances which the bank has recently been confronted with at the clearinghouse.

As soon as this step became known those in touch with the bank's affairs knew that there was nothing else to do but go into liquidation, and the decision was hurriedly reached late Saturday afternoon when the Controller of the Currency was asked to come at once.

The private letters of advice referred to were sent out on the closing days of last week, and since most of the letters went to out-of-town banks, which carried considerable balances with the National Bank of North America, the effect was instantaneous, and the few deposits that the directors had succeeded in retaining, melted away like snow beneath the sun.

ROB POSTOFFICE FOUR TIMES.

RENO, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the fourth time in two years, since Charles Beemer has been postmaster at Sparks, the postoffice there was entered and the safe dynamited by burglars who took away $600 worth of stamps and coin.

The burglary was not reported until the arrival today of the Federal inspector. In the safe were several pouches of registered mail, but they were not disturbed.

From the manner in which the burglars have been committed, the authorities say the same parties are guilty of all four crimes, and Federal detectives expect to find the criminals close at home.

LONG CHASE ENDED.

TACOMA, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Monroe T. Brown, charged with having stolen an express package containing $2,600 from the Tacoma office of the Northern Pacific Express Company, where he was employed, and who escaped from Deputy Sheriff Steno in September in Spokane, was brought to Tacoma by Sheriff Morris. He was captured in Helena, where he was working as a truck driver.

After his escape in Spokane, Brown hid for three days. While he was in hiding, the Great Northern train was robbed. While attempting to escape from Spokane, Brown was surrounded near Sandpoint, Idaho, by a posse in search of the train robbers, and was fired upon. He hid in the swamp, and afterward worked for two months on a ranch.

MORE GOLD STRIKES.

TACOMA, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Some dispatches say that notwithstanding all predictions that First, Second and Third Beaches have petered out, strikes continue to be made. Every week sees some new find, and since fall two miles of Third Beach has been changed from prospect ground to paying mines.

The theory is now advanced that with time pay will be located for a great distance east and perhaps many miles west of Nome on the ancient beach lines.

Mining men are happy, and money will pour into machinery to prospect the best systems of many miles east and west of Nome. Most of the pay, however, is east of Nome, where at least twenty miles of beach will be prospecting with machinery this year.

DISCUSSES FINANCES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The street railway chairman of the District of Columbia and the financial question occupied the time of the House of Representatives today.

The latter subject was discussed by Mr. Fowler, chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency, in an exhaustive speech, in which he opposed bond secured currency and the proposition looking to the establishment of a central bank.

Mr. Fowler used for his text the bill introduced by him early in the present month, providing, among other things, for back redemption of currency, which he argued, would meet national emergencies.

Children's Shoes

Several Hundred Pairs Purchased from a Big Dealer at a Fraction of Worth. $1.25 to $2.00 Values 75c

Several hundred pairs of children's high grade shoes, that we bought from one of the most exclusive dealers on Broadway. You would be surprised if we told you the name. We bought them at a fraction of their real worth. They wish to discontinue certain lines.

We throw the entire lot on sale today at 75c a pair. Hundreds of pretty little colored top shoes, with patent leather vamps; others in plain kid, button or lace, dull kid tops. Not a pair in the lot worth less than $1.25. Many $1.50 ones, and quite a few that sell regularly at $2.00. Plenty of sizes for babies, and for children 4 to 8 years only. No phone or mail orders. They won't last long at this price. Be here when the doors open—75c pair. This is another illustration of the Broadway buying prestige.

PROBABLE COST KEEPS GROWING.

PROBLEM NOW IS WHEN LIMIT WILL BE REACHED.

From the Original Estimate of $140,000,000 for Constructing the Panama Canal, It Has Now Increased to $300,000,000, According to Guess of Col. George W. Goethals.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The wonder is growing among Senators and Representatives on what basis the original estimators fixed the probable cost of the Panama Canal.

There is a half-way suspicion that the first estimators did not know their business or were afraid to give out a truth that they thought might be appalling. With the characteristic bluntness of a soldier, Col. George W. Goethals has said that he can only guess at the total cost of the canal, but that he believes it will not exceed $250,000,000, excluding the original purchase price.

As another has put it, "the estimated cost of the Panama Canal keeps pace in the ascending scale with the cost of living. Every year the price the United States will have to pay for the waterway is marked up."

First estimates put it as low as $140,000,000. Then came what was called

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

An Inadvertence.

The correspondent who, under date of January 21, wrote a letter to the editor of this paper and inadvertently sent it to the Los Angeles Times, is requested to communicate with him by letter or in person.

A Lemon Squeeze.

The Lemon Club, an organization composed of gay young bachelors, gave a party in honor of Miss Hazel Fitzgerald of No. 851 Buena Vista street, Baroque telegrams were sent to the guests in lieu of invitations and the program was made in imitation of lemonade. A play, "A Lemon Squeeze," was one of the features of the evening. The hostess served refreshments to the jolly crowd and the evening was pleasantly passed.

Texas Leap Year Party.

The Texas Society gave a leap-year party at its hall on Hill street last night. An interesting program was given which included the following numbers: Reading, Prof. Windsor; vocal solo, Mrs. Ruth T. Schaefer; piano duet, the Misses Grave; piano solo, Mrs. Winhegan; Dr. C. Guy Kelly, Prof. L. P. Key, J. M. Lusk and Mrs. Craig gave informal addresses. The rest of the evening was given up to dancing.

Business Men's Meetings.

The street meetings of the business men's campaign will be held every day this week at noon, at the usual places, and the best of speakers have been assigned to make the addresses. Shop meetings will be held at 10:30 a. m., 12 m. and 2:30 p. m. The speakers at the evening meetings in Monarch Rink will be as follows: Tonight, Rev. W. L. Tucker, Wednesday night, Rev. George Soltan; Thursday, Dr. J. Q. A. Henry; Friday, Maj. George A. Hillon.

Missing Man Found.

John D. Draper, the man who escaped from the Mono Monogon Sanitarium, this city, last November, and whose wife made every effort to find him, but without success, has come to light in San Diego of his own accord. He shaved off his mustache and it proved such a perfect disguise that he has spent the intervening time near Whittier without being discovered. He has made application in the San Diego courts to be restored to competency, they having at one time decided that he was incompetent. The hearing will be had today, and it is said his wife will not oppose him, though she was the complainant in the first action.

BREVITIES.

Sunday Real Estate Liners. Classified real estate advertisements for insertion in THE SUNDAY TIMES must be in the office not later than 10:30 o'clock Saturday night. Other "want" advertisements for Sunday insertion must be over the counter until 11:30 p. m. The great volume of liners printed in THE SUNDAY TIMES, numbering regularly over 5000 separate announcements, makes this regulation absolutely necessary in order to get the big Sunday issue out on time.

PERSONAL.

Walter B. Hill, a junior at Stanford University, passed through Los Angeles last night on his way to his home in Peoria, Ill.

Dr. W. L. Johnson and party of Uxbridge, Mass., who are spending the winter in this section of the State, are quartered at the Hotel Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Phipps of Winnipeg, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lewis of New York and J. Fred Howarth of Boston are at the Alexandria.

Mrs. Sanders, widow of the late Senator Sanders of Montana is visiting her son who is following his profession as a mining engineer in this city.

Thomas Wood, a tourist from Chislehurst, England, Frank J. Linehan of Boston and Rev. E. G. Grund of Bakersfield are guests at the Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Walker of Spokane, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. M. Porter and Mr. and Mrs. George McLean of Denver are guests at the Lanker-shim.

J. S. Woodman, who has been here for several months, has returned to Boston, going by way of Salt Lake. Woodman is the proprietor of a drug store in the eastern city.

I. V. Godney, pickle and preserve manufacturer of Minneapolis has joined the extensive Minnesota colony at the Hotel Lexington accompanied by his wife. They will remain for some weeks.

Mrs. Alexander Hughes, widow of the late Gen. Alexander Hughes of Minneapolis is a visitor at the Hotel Lexington, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Helen Hughes Laramee and the latter's little son. Gen. Hughes was one of the leaders of the Minnesota Bar and served for many years as general counsel for the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

HOSPITAL DIRECTORS. At the annual meeting of the California Hospital the following were elected to the board of directors: Dr. F. T. Bicknell, president; Dr. E. B. Smith, vice-president; Dr. W. W. Hitchcock, treasurer; Dr. Walter Lindley, secretary; Dr. W. W. Beckwith, Dr. Geo. L. Cole, Dr. H. Bert Ellis, Dr. John R. Haynes, Dr. Carl Kurtz and Dr. M. L. Moore. There are the same officers elected at the organization of the hospital ten years ago. In ten years since the organization, a total of 15,478 patients have been treated in the hospital. During the last year 2440 patients were cared for. Each patient cost an average of $2.95 per day during the last year. This is nearly one-third more than each patient cost four years ago. The increase is attributed to the advances in the cost of living.

Creditors yesterday began bankruptcy proceedings against the Zeller Milling Company of Hamilton, O. The company's debts aggregate $100,000. Its capital is $100,000.

LEAP YEAR. EDITORS MAKE LOVE IN PRINT.

WOMAN LOSES JOB BECAUSE OF SEX AND PROPOSES.

Rival Accepts Editorially, Provided She Can Qualify as a Housekeeper and She Will Say in Next Issue She Can—Newspaper Folk in Iowa Ready With Congratulations.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] DES MOINES (Iowa) Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Exasperated over having lost in a contest for the county printing, simply because she was a woman, Miss Elizabeth Schlem, editor of the Storm Lake Vidette, asserted her leap year prerogatives this week and in her current issue makes the following proposal: "A constant fight for what rightfully belongs to her is a wear and tear on the nervous system of any woman and we have come to the belief that in order to stay in newspaper work and maintain our health we will have to marry some good printer who can do the fighting and swearing for us. This is leap year and this may be considered as a proposal by any one who would be qualified to fill the vacancy to evident in the Vidette office."

G. A. Craig, the bachelor editor of the Lovton Star, believing that a proposal of marriage coming from such a talented woman could not be turned down, wrote an acceptance and in the last issue of his paper he says: "We believe we are eligible to fill the vacancy which Sister Schlem feels exists in her print shop. We're a Missouri Democrat of forty years' standing. Considered smooth printer. As to our fighting qualities, suffice to say we come from a family that kills. On the swearing proposition our press feeder says that we would be there with the goods, as we swear in seven different languages at once when things go wrong on press night."

"But before we would agree to take up Lizzy's ousins she will have to show credentials as to her eligibility to the vacancy which we have known existed for some time at our wigwam. She must know how to make pancakes, fry ham and eggs, and make good coffee; she must have the staying qualities to chase a dirty suit up and down a washboard until it becomes clean; she must know how to darn socks and the gable end of our trousers, etc. If the fair editor feels like filling a vacancy for a vacancy being filled, I stand ready to close the deal."

In her next issue of the Vidette, Miss Schlem will assure the editor of her ability to deliver his goods and all newspapermen is preparing to extend congratulations to two of the brightest members of the fraternity.

STATEHOOD BLOCKED. New Mexico Representatives Drop Fight for Present After Canvass of Congress.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SANTA FE (N. M.) Jan. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] New Mexico's chances for statehood at this session of Congress have gone glimmering. This news was received in Capital today in a message from Gov. Curry and this message was reported in almost every town in the Territory.

Gov. Curry and National Committee-man Solomon Lums, who were in Washington a week ago to ascertain New Mexico's chances for admission to the Union, after carefully canvassing the situation came to the conclusion that the outlook for success at this time was hopeless, and upon promises from a majority of the members of both Houses that if the Territory would wait until after the next national election, they would then take up the matter of statehood for New Mexico, agreed to drop the fight and return home.

As a result, the big delegation of statehood boosters have been turned back and will not leave tomorrow for Washington as planned. While sorely disappointed at the failure to secure statehood at this session, the people of New Mexico are by no means discouraged and will renew the fight upon reconvening of Congress next December.

We will close out, also, about a hundred and fifty pairs of highly damaged silk gloves. All lengths and styles and sizes, from 50c to $2.00 a pair, at Half Price.

Sale Wednesday.

WE WISSNER PIANOS MUST GO AT ONCE

Established music house goes out of business. We take over stock of Wissner Pianos to sell, by manufacturer's request, at enormous sacrifice. New feature of our great sale.

Short time ago one of the oldest established music houses in the city closed its doors. At the manufacturer's request we have taken over from them one of the celebrated Wissner pianos—two uprights and three grand pianos.

We are authorized to dispose of these instruments at prices that will bring a quick clearance. We are selling at a sacrifice. We are selling at a sacrifice.

We do not handle the Wissner pianos as a regular agency, and do not know as we can highly recommend them as being strictly high grade. They are endorsed by such musical authorities as Emil Paur, Anton Winkler, No better piano than these have ever been made.

Prices: Two Wissner uprights, regularly $550 to $750, at from $395. Three Wissner grands, regularly $800 to $1000, at from $550.

Continuing six agencies. The Steinway, Kränich & Schuler and Kurtzmann will be great leaders—every other piano in the store is being offered at a sacrifice.

Continued styles in Kränich & Bach, Schuler and Baus pianos, regularly $250 to $600. Now $150 to $325. In this sale you can also buy Steinway pianos at reduced prices—this is the first time we have ever made this offer—in all probability we shall never make it again.

These prices prevail at our branch stores in San Bernardino, Pomona and Colton. Easy terms of payment, if desired. Come in today.

GRAND JURY INDICTS LANTERMAN AND SAGE.

Four True Bills Found Against Former Coroner and His Deputy, According to Latest Report, and Arrests Will Be Made Today.

FOUR indictments were returned by the grand jury at a late hour yesterday afternoon before Judge Conroy in the Superior Court, and warrants were immediately issued for the arrest of the men involved. Judge Conroy set the bail at $5000 in each case.

There are conflicting reports as to the number of men against whom the grand jury found true bills, one authority stating that three men are in the legal net, while another is to the effect that only two men are facing the four indictments.

But whether two or three men, it is asserted upon excellent authority that the names of two of them are Dr. Roy S. Lanterman, No. 1146 Arapahoe street, whose resignation as Coroner was accepted by the Board of Supervisors yesterday, and Clyde H. Sage, who as Chief Deputy Coroner, loses his job with the elimination of Lanterman as a county officer.

MAKES RESTITUTION. Sage yesterday—just before the indictments were returned by the grand jury—made restitution to the county treasury of quite a large sum of money which he was charged with having misappropriated for his own use.

He also returned to the county a valuable diamond which he was charged before the grand jury with stealing from a dead body. This diamond Sage has been wearing, as it is asserted, without any right.

The news of the returning of the indictments spread like wild fire throughout the Courthouse, and although no names were given out officially, it was generally asserted that the men indicted included Lanterman and Sage. General satisfaction was expressed that this might be the case.

For two weeks or more the grand jury has been investigating charges made against Coroner Lanterman and his chief deputy. Scores of witnesses have been examined, and bundles of legal documents have been inspected by the jury.

SERIOUS CHARGES SECRET. Every precaution was taken to prevent the nature of the investigation from being made public, not even a stenographer being present to take down the proceedings and evidence.

But the personality of the many witnesses called before the grand jury gave an inkling of the nature of the investigation, and the four indictments returned yesterday followed what is said to have been an acknowledgment upon the part of one of the indicted men of wrongful acts in office.

The nature of the charges made and investigated are more than usually serious, and at the same time those investigated were of a diverse character, from riding on a railroad pass and then charging the county with the expense of the fare, to appropriating property from a corpse without making returns to the county treasury.

It is also stated that the charge that the Coroner received "rake-offs" from certain undertakers was looked into. As to the four indictments, these are still in the custody of the court, and were not given out last night to the Sheriff to be served because the office of the Sheriff was closed when the indictments were returned.

WAS NOT ARRESTED. Dr. Lanterman last evening was at the home of his father who is critically ill, and arrangements are said to have been made to have the warrant served upon him after he left the house so as not to have the shock of the arrest affect Mr. Lanterman. As it happened this consideration was unnecessary, as the charge was made to have Dr. Lanterman arrested.

If it is positively true that Dr. Lanterman is one of the men indicted by the grand jury he will be taken into custody early today and taken before Judge Conroy to have his bail bonds approved in the sum of $5000.

Clyde H. Sage, formerly connected with the office of the City Tax Collector and recently Chief Deputy Coroner, will also be held in $5000 bail for trial upon each charge in case it is found that he is also one of the men indicted.

It is not believed that there will be any attempt upon the part of the men indicted to escape from the jurisdiction of the county or court, and that this is the case was shown last night by the fact that no attempt was made to hurry the arrests.

Who the third man indicted is—if there is a third man—is still a mystery. In fact the official assurance that either Lanterman or Sage are indicted is wanting and all four indictments are practically a mystery.

Nevertheless if it be correct that there is one indictment against Dr. Lanterman and three indictments against Mr. Sage, the former will be required to produce only $5000 surety, while the latter will have to produce surety in the sum of $15,000.

Although it is known generally by the public that Coroner Lanterman became mixed up in a disgraceful scuffle and row with the proprietress of a house of ill fame on Ord street, and that he was arrested at

OIL TANKS EXPLODE, TWO MEN MAY DIE.

Fuel Reservoirs at Redondo's Great Power Plant Burst and Blaze, Crippling Station and Delaying Los Angeles Trolley Service.

TWO men were probably fatally burned, two others slightly, and the entire Los Angeles city and most of the suburban electric lines were put out of business for a short time last evening by explosions followed by fire in two of the large oil tanks that supply fuel at the magnificent new $1,500,000 generating plant of the Pacific Light and Power Company at Redondo. The damage to the plant was comparatively light.

The injured: William E. Thompson, first assistant engineer, Redondo; burned about body, head and arms, may die. A. Y. Muehl, operating steam engineer, Redondo; burned about hands, arms, face and breast, may die.

Charles E. Mull, assistant fireman, Redondo; face and hands slightly burned. W. H. Shippley, assistant fireman, Redondo; face and hands slightly burned.

Thompson, Muehl and Mull were brought to the Emergency and General Hospital at Los Angeles, where it was reported late last night that the condition of the two former is critical. Shippley went to his home at Redondo.

SPECTACULAR BLAZE. The blaze was spectacular. It followed quickly a dull boom that rose high above the hum of the power-house engines and shook the great power-house, which is of reinforced concrete and like a rock imbedded in the sand. The reflection showed rays of fire and flames shooting into the air quickly communicated with the wooden roof of an adjoining tank, which in a few seconds also set loose with a terrific explosion, and in an instant this tank, too, was a well of fire.

Thirty employees in the engine and boiler rooms dashed quickly to the tanks, which are just outside the main building. It was known that one man and possibly more were in the tanks. The first thought was to rescue them.

On a cement sub-roof, several feet below the temporary wooden roof, and a few feet above the new building, in one tank, the rescuers espied Shippley, who had gone to the tank to measure the supply of oil. His clothing was ablaze and he appeared unable to extricate himself from his precarious position.

RESCUERS CAUGHT. Thompson, Muehl and Mull clambered down into the tank, now a mass of flames, and succeeded in getting Shippley out; not, however, before each of them had been burned severely. The clothing of the rescuers was deluged with blazing oil and it was with difficulty that other employees were able to rescue the trio who had got Shippley out of harm's way.

Physicians were called from Redondo by telephone, a special car was run up to the power plant and Muehl, who appeared at that time to be the greatest sufferer, was rushed to Los Angeles for surgical attendance.

A few minutes later, when it was found that Thompson's injuries were great, he and Mull were sent in on a regular car.

The tanks that exploded were two of a group of four that have been used as auxiliaries in supplying the boilers at the plant. Each was twenty-two feet in diameter and probably twenty feet deep, their upper edges being just above the ground level. They were of concrete, and were roofed temporarily with wood. Far away down there was another roof, of concrete, and through these led hatchways to the oil reservoirs below. Two similar tanks adjoining contained no oil, and were not affected by the explosion.

LANTERN THE CAUSE. Five minutes before 6 o'clock, when the night shift of operatives came on duty, Shippley was sent to one of the tanks to measure the amount of oil it contained. It was while he was investigating that the explosion occurred.

While he was unable to make a statement last night, it is supposed that he used an oil lantern, opening a hatchway and peering into the depths. The accumulation of gas ignited at once, and—poof!—Shippley was tossed into the air, his clothing ablaze. Then came the fire and the explosion of the other tank.

Ordinarily, such investigations have been made with a kerosene lamp, but it was said last night that the circuit supplying lights for this purpose was not working.

The big power-house is fireproof, and there was little danger that the fire would communicate to the big building, but the thirty employees then at work quickly set about to extinguish the fire. The volunteer fire department of Redondo also was called into play.

THOUSANDS FOR NEEDY.

Supervisors Set Aside Fund to Put Many Unemployed Men at Work.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday adopted a resolution setting aside a fund of $5000 to benefit the unemployed of Los Angeles county by putting many a work on by county roads, culverts and bridges. The fund will be available at once.

On motion of Supervisor Alexander, seconded by Supervisor Eldridge, the resolution provides for the payment of $1.50 a day to a man, and $4 a day for a man and team. In case $5000 proves to be insufficient, another similar sum will be provided.

The Supervisors will meet this afternoon to inspect the buildings and grounds of the County Hospital for the purpose of determining just how much work is needed there, and putting men on as soon as possible.

There is $5000 in the general road fund, and $25,000 more soon will be added, while there is $15,000 in the County Hospital fund.

Miss Emma Quinones, "the Woman in Black."

cousin of Estelle Corwell, testifying to the love-life of the prisoner and the man she killed. Below is the mysterious pretty young girl, name not divulged to anybody, who sits in court and smiles at all the terrible incidents in the evidence.

SMILES OF MYSTERY AT CORWELL TRIAL.

ALL through the proceedings at the trial of Estelle Corwell yesterday for the murder of Bennett, ran the story of the inner life and sayings of the prisoner, pathetic incidents of her love and sorrow, outbursts of anger by the mother of the man she killed; at times the jurors broke down and tears trickled into their whiskers, women sobbed, and Attorney Appel wore his side smile—on the jury side—yet dominating everything was the smile of a pretty girl.

From the hour the trial began, fifteen days ago, Mrs. George W. Bennett, mother of the murdered man, has occupied the same chair near the jury and has gloated the story of the crime and sorrows of the woman who killed her son; only this has she showed emotion until yesterday, when she exploded with wrath.

But yesterday there took her seat beside the stern old white-haired woman, who seeks vengeance, a fresh, lovely and handsomely-dressed young woman, hardly out of her teens. She smiled the whole time. When a witness was telling how Bennett knocked down the defendant and kicked her so brutally that the unborn baby was killed, this beautiful girl smiled as though at a funny story; when it was told how the defendant tried to commit suicide and was terribly injured, the fresh, blooming girl almost laughed; when was recited the heart-rending words of the miserable woman on trial for her life in begging her lover to make an honest woman of her, this charming young lady seemed very much amused. It was incongruous.

WANTED THE PICTURE. The defense, over the objections of Deputy District Attorney Blair, introduced a number of exhibits showing the interest taken by the defendant in the life and family of the man she killed; photograph pictures, telegrams, letters, all tending to explain the hope of the accused of becoming the wife of the man who betrayed her.

It was at the end of the morning session and Attorney Appel unwrapped a picture and started to show it to the witness, Miss Emma Quinones, "the woman in black," for identification. It was the picture of a young girl, one of them the sister of George T. Bennett, Lucile, and the other a cousin.

When the picture was displayed Mrs. Bennett suddenly jumped from her seat and rushing over to Appel attempted to grab the oak frame, but Appel guarded it with one hand as he backed away.

"Give me that picture," cried Mrs. Bennett. "No, madam, I cannot do that," said the attorney.

"He has stolen those things from me," asserted the frantic woman as she tried to seize the picture.

By this time Bailiff H. H. Daye reached her side and firmly led her back to her seat. "He stole those things," repeated the old woman with emphasis.

Judge Wilbur warned her that she would be ejected from the court if she made such a scene again.

All the afternoon Miss Quinones was upon the witness stand and her long examination was only broken once, when Judge Wilbur adjourned court to permit the witness and the jurymen to recover their equanimity. The witness told of the early life of Estelle Goodman in Kingman, Ariz., of her school life and how at 16 years she was married to Trevor Corwell. In 1905 these were divorced.

Miss Quinones told of how they all

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

In order to give work to men of family now out of employment, the Council appropriated $5000 yesterday to build boulevards in Elysian and Griffith parks.

City Engineer Hamlin has been added to the aqueduct staff as consulting engineer; he will serve without pay.

A recommendation to reduce the wages of laborers in the street department in order to employ more men was rejected yesterday by the Council.

The jury trial of Mrs. Lizzie Clapp's suit against Herbert J. Vatcher, to have the latter's title deed to her late husband's real estate at South Pasadena declared void and set aside, began yesterday in Judge Hutton's court.

William Reid's suit to enjoin C. B. Williams from asserting any right to four acres of land in South Arlington, for which Williams holds a trust deed from Reid, came to trial in Judge Conroy's court.

Mrs. Emma M. Johnson's $32,433 damage suit against the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company, for personal injuries sustained at Santa Monica, started in Judge James's court.

The Union Oil Company filed a suit in the Superior Court attacking the corporation franchise tax as unlawful, and asking the repayment of $22,180 collected by the county.

A jury in Judge Smith's court brought in its verdict in the case of the first degree against Fred Rebolledo, who shot Valentine Avila, August 21 last, and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon refused to take action on the Union Oil Company's demand that its county corporation franchise tax be either refunded or repayment refused.

AT THE CITY HALL.

FOR MEN OF FAMILY ONLY.

WILL EMPLOY TWO HUNDRED IN CITY PARKS.

Council Votes to Build Boulevard Through Griffith and Elysian Parks in Order to Give Work to the Unemployed—Supervisors Will Construct Connecting Link.

Work for 400 men of families will be provided by the city and county jointly, in constructing a boulevard from Elysian to Griffith Park. The Council appropriated $5000 yesterday for this purpose and promised to make a second appropriation if it is found necessary, when Parks arrested them, handcuffed them and took them to the East Side Police Station without explanation. There they were turned loose.

The construction work will be under the direction of the Park Board and Park Superintendent Morley will be in charge. There was considerable discussion in the Council over the amount of money to appropriate and the rate of pay for the workmen. Healy made his usual fight for higher wages for the laborers; he wanted the men to be paid at least $2 a day. Some of the legislators called attention to the fact that the last time the city provided work in the parks for the unemployed, they received but $1 a day.

At the morning session of the Council a message was received from the Mayor recommending that $5000 be set aside to be expended in building roads and making other improvements in Elysian and Griffith Parks. He gave his reasons as follows:

The recommendation is made at this time because there are a large number of men out of employment, and the families of many of them will have to be taken care of. To relieve suffering, which is evident to all, and to get these men back to work, it is recommended that $5000 be set aside to be expended in building roads and making other improvements in Elysian and Griffith Parks. Part of this boulevard will be within the city limits and part over the county border, by cooperation with the county board of supervisors. Work on the boulevard will be started as soon as the City Council takes the initiative and the supervisors will appropriate enough money to employ laborers during the period the city carries on this work.

The contemplated work is a boulevard connecting Elysian and Griffith Parks. Part of this boulevard will be within the city limits and part over the county border, by cooperation with the county board of supervisors. Work on the boulevard will be started as soon as the City Council takes the initiative and the supervisors will appropriate enough money to employ laborers during the period the city carries on this work.

The Council was too much worried over a summons to go before the grand jury today to act before noon. Some regarded the matter as a challenge to the jury as almost tantamount to indictment for permitting the City Jail to be so overcrowded. It was not until they had consulted with the City Attorney that the legislative equilibrium was restored.

In the afternoon when the legislators had appropriated money for improving the City Jail, the legislators took cognizance of the Mayor's message and voted to appropriate money for the aid of the unemployed.

Brought face to face with a genuine emergency the legislators dropped all vapors about a depleted treasury and announced that there is sufficient money on hand to help the unemployed, to build a stockade and to purchase a site for a new jail.

Last night the Park Board met and discussed plans for improvements to be made by the unemployed in the parks. The commissioners will be the day after tomorrow to permit a portion of the money to be used for teams so that the labor performed may be utilized to advantage.

NO CUTS IN PAY.

INCREASES MUST STAND.

A majority of the members of the Council did not take kindly yesterday to the recommendation of Inspector Edwards of the Department of Public Works that the per diem of laborers be reduced in order that more of them may be employed.

Mr. Edwards thinks that the city can afford relief best by giving work to men rather than employ only a few on prospect wages.

Healy and Lyon led the opposition to this recommendation on the floor of the Council. Some of the other legislators favored a reduction for a few weeks until times improve so that more men may be cared for. Healy said that the railroads are sending out men by the score right now repairing the damage to tracks and bridges by storm water. He said that within three weeks most of the idle laborers will be working again.

Four Councilmen voted for a reduction in wages and four stood pat, so the recommendation of the Inspector of Public Works was rejected.

LIKE BAD DREAM.

When Houghton came back. Dr. Houghton, former Councilman from the Sixth Ward, slipped up on the Council's unawareness yesterday morning and "bombed" the legislators to listen to a harangue in favor of calling an election to vote $1,000,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a municipal railway from Los Angeles to San Pedro.

This is Houghton's way of taking

SPECIAL WATER TAX LAW UNDER ATTACK.

QUESTIONED.

THE validity of an ordinance imposing a special tax upon companies or individuals selling water for domestic use was in controversy in the United States Circuit Court yesterday, in an action brought by the city against the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company to collect more than $5000 back taxes.

The ordinance was passed about five years ago. It provided that any individual or company selling water for domestic use should be taxed $20 a month on sales aggregating less than $5000 a month. On sales of $5000 and over the tax was fixed at $100 a month. A deputy from the City Attorney's office stated that the validity of similar ordinances has been upheld by the State Supreme Court. Judge Williams, born in the United States, stated that the ordinance was unconstitutional, and that the city was not entitled to collect the taxes.

Much time was consumed in the argument at the morning and afternoon sessions. The court considered the question of the importance of the ordinance to the city and the city's right to collect the taxes.

care of the unemployed. With his old-time abandon Houghton told the Council that if it does not do something at once for the unemployed, those out of work will rise up and do something for themselves.

When it was all over the Council voted to take the petition under advisement, and hurried along to other business.

For Consulting Engineer.

City Engineer Hamlin has been selected by the Board of Public Works to serve as consulting engineer on the Los Angeles aqueduct. In a resolution announcing his appointment, the Board of Public Works said that it takes such action in response to requests from Chief Engineer Mulholland and Assistant Chief Engineer Lippincott. Mr. Hamlin will receive without pay from the aqueduct, and will divide his time between the City Engineer's office and the aqueduct department.

Officers Under Fire.

Lawrence L. Stevens, an employee of the city water department, filed charges with the Police Commission yesterday against Police Officer Paul and Park Policeman Ryan. Stevens, with his brother, was returning from work on the Elysian Park reservoir when Paul arrested them, handcuffed them and took them to the East Side Police Station without explanation. There they were turned loose.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SHE FIGHTS TO SAVE HER HOME.

WOMAN WANTS TITLE TO THE REAL ESTATE.

Will of Late Husband, Leaving Her Property, Has Been Admitted to Probate, but Mrs. Williams Claims Title to House and Lot, Executed by Dead Man.

A contest between a seventy-year-old widow on one side, to secure possession of a $1000 house and lot at South Pasadena, which was her home for years, and a man who claims he holds a deed to the property given by her late husband for a valuable consideration, came to trial before a jury in Judge Hutton's court yesterday.

Mrs. Lizzie Clapp, as executrix of the estate of Albert Clapp, who shot himself at South Pasadena, April 1, 1903, is suing Herbert J. Vatcher, superintendent of the Caviston Orchard Farm, where Clapp was employed, to have him set aside a deed by which Vatcher holds a deed given by the dead man in March, 1903.

Clapp, who was greatly addicted to the use of liquor for two years before his death, in February, 1903, had his wife arrested on a charge of insanity, but after examination she was discharged from custody. She asserted that Vatcher and other persons who desired to get Clapp's property, instigated him in this matter and also, by their superior influence over him, induced him to execute a will in March, 1903, by which Vatcher was given all his property.

Clapp had previously executed a deed to Vatcher for his house and lot, and this deed was among his papers at the time of his death. But after his death Vatcher, Mrs. Clapp says, secured the papers and had the deed recorded. Mrs. Clapp said that Vatcher, Lavina White and other witnesses falsely to acknowledge the execution of the deed.

Mrs. Clapp filed for probate a will made by Clapp, by which she was given all his property, consisting of the house and lot, and the deed to the purchase of which, she says, she contributed $500 of her own earnings. In January, 1904, Mrs. Clapp was given the will giving his property to Vatcher. Of this will C. B. Ladd was made executor. Now Mrs. Clapp is trying to have Vatcher's deed set aside as void, or to secure the value of her property.

Vatcher's defense is that he loaned between $200 and $300 to Clapp before his death and that the deed was given for a valuable consideration.

No evidence was presented to the jury yesterday, as the entire day was spent in argument. Vatcher's attorneys held that the decision of the court in admitting the will to probate should not be introduced in evidence, as that decision, they claim, does not affect the validity of the deed in question.

At the close of the day's session the court adjourned until tomorrow.

CHARGES FRAUD.

VALUABLE LAND IS PRIZE.

That C. B. Williams by false pretenses got from him for $2500 a quitclaim deed to four acres of South Arlington land, alleged to be worth $12,500, which Williams now claims to be his own, is the charge that William Reid made yesterday in Judge Conroy's court in the trial of his suit against Williams to enjoin the latter from asserting any right to the property. The German-American Savings Bank and the Union Trust and Realty Company are made parties to the suit.

During a dispute over property mat-

If the ordinance is valid then any one selling carbonated water might be taxed $20 a month, although his sales were less than the tax counsel for the defense argued. He asserted that the ordinance was framed to prevent private water companies competing with the municipal plant, and was not directed against local industrial concerns that sell distilled or spring water.

It is evident, he said, that the present litigation is directed solely against the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company, which does a large business in selling Puritas water, a distilled product designed for table use.

Another strong point brought out by the defense was the fact that the city has not attempted to collect the tax for several years, thus apparently admitting that the law is unjust.

"Its arbitrary classification at once shows its unconstitutionality," stated the attorney. "If a concern sold $1000 worth of distilled water each month, it would only pay a tax of $20, whereas a water company's sales are $2500 a month for selling $2000 worth of water each month."

Much time was consumed in the argument at the morning and afternoon sessions. The court considered the question of the importance of the ordinance to the city and the city's right to collect the taxes.

here in March, 1907, Reid was shot five times by his nephew, William McKinley, who was subsequently sentenced to ten years in Folsom for the crime. Reid's attorneys assert that McKinley acted in collusion with Williams, against whom the present suit is brought, and that he sought to induce Reid to kill the old man to secure his property.

Reid says that in July, 1908, Joseph Wannop held the property in trust as security for a $3500 loan to Reid. But Williams falsely told him, Reid says, that Wannop was trying to dispose of the property to defraud the owner, and prevailed on him to give Williams a mortgage and quitclaim deed to the property for $3500, with which Wannop's claim was discharged.

This money was lent by Williams to Reid, who asserted that Williams did not advance his own money, as agreed upon between them, but borrowed it from the German-American Savings Bank in June, 1906, giving as security his note, secured by a trust deed to the property.

An arrangement has been made by Reid with the German-American Savings Bank and the trust company holding the deed to the property, by which the deed is to be released, by payment of the $3500 advanced, and not to dispose of the property in any way, but that he broke his promise as soon as he got the title in his possession.

Later in 1906, Reid had an opportunity to dispose of the property for $10,000, and offered to pay over to Williams his $3500 loan, but the latter declared that the property was his and refused to accept the money tendered.

As an arrangement has been made by Reid with the German-American Savings Bank and the trust company holding the deed to the property, by which the deed is to be released, by payment of the $3500 advanced, and not to dispose of the property in any way, but that he broke his promise as soon as he got the title in his possession.

The supervisors refused to make any appropriation for the hospital expenses of Mrs. Harris County Jail prisoners, who was taken to the County Hospital for medical treatment, but was afterwards removed to a private hospital. It was decided that in this case they had no authority in law to pay expenses for medical attendance at other hospitals than the county institution.

Bids for installing storm drains and conduits on Huntington Drive were opened, and Dure & Woodman, the lowest of the nine bidders, were awarded the contract at $48.

ing Rebolledo's counsel, Reuben Schmidt addressed the jury for forty-five minutes, declaring that his client had acted in self-defense in shooting Avila, and had acted without malice. Deputy District Attorney John North then reviewed the testimony, and argued that it showed deliberate intention to commit murder. FIGHT BEGINS.

FRANCHISE TAX IS ATTACKED.

Litigation that undoubtedly will be carried to the highest courts in an effort to have the tax on corporations franchise tax declared unlawful was initiated yesterday, when the Union Oil Company filed in the Superior Court a suit against Los Angeles county to recover $22,180 in taxes paid for 1907-8 on the franchise of the corporation. The suit is in essence a challenge to the constitutionality of the tax, which is imposed by corporations opposed to the imposition of the tax.

The complaint states that the tax of $22,180 on the corporation's franchise, assessed at $12,500 by the County Assessor, was paid under protest, only as it attempts to assess the good-will of the corporation, which is not a taxable asset. The tax is illegal, inequitable and unjust, as it attempts to assess the good-will, earning capacity and business reputation of a corporation. This is in violation of the constitution, which imposes the tax should be foreclosed by the courts, which are asked to declare the tax unconstitutional and void.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

BUES CITY. Frank Henry yesterday filed a $20,000 damage suit against the City Trustees of Arcadia for personal injuries sustained by him December last, when he was thrown from the rear door of a grocery store in falling to keep in proper repair the highway between Arcadia and Monterey. The plaintiff, who was a chauffeur ran over a bank on Fifth street, Arcadia, and he received serious injuries to his limbs and back, resulting in traumatic neurosis.

CHARGE NEGLIGENCE. D. C. Oglesby yesterday filed, in the Superior Court, a $1000 damage suit against H. W. Chase of the Hotel Nevada, for a broken leg and other injuries alleged to have been received by him December 6 by falling into an open stairway on First street at the hotel. He charges that the stairway was not properly railed in.

AUTOIST SUES. Henry B. Smith yesterday filed in the Superior Court a $5000 damage suit against the Los Angeles Railway Company for injuries to his back and legs alleged to have been sustained by being thrown from his automobile by a collision with a trolley car on Main street April 20 last. He charges negligence in the operation of the street car.

FILES WILL. Miss Mabel Cameron, a laugher under the will of William L. F. Cameron, who died in Pasadena, January 9, leaving a $100,000 estate to his widow and two children, yesterday filed the will for probate in the Superior Court.

FIXES BAIL. Judge Smith yesterday admitted Irving Long to $1000 bail, which was furnished by relatives, pending Long's new trial. Long was on a charge of robbery. Long was convicted in May, 1906, of having assisted A. C. Williams and Charles Vanant in robbing James Priory of $20 in February, 1905. He was released on probation, violated his parole, and in Arcadia was sentenced by Judge

Smith to ten years in Folsom. His case was appealed and a new trial ordered by the Appellate Court.

TRIAL SET. Andrade and R. Villa were arraigned before Justice Summerfield yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace at Monte Vista, Saturday. Bail was fixed at $100 each, pending their trial February 3. They were committed to jail.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the Redondo Harbors Company, capital stock, $5000. The Chas. Land and Stock Company filed a certificate of increase in its capital stock from $25,000 to $100,000.

ASKS MAINTENANCE. Alleging that her husband refused to provide for her properly, Lillie E. Kelley yesterday filed in the Superior Court a suit against R. D. Kelley for $20 monthly maintenance money. She says they were married in June, 1907, that her husband deserted her in September, 1907, and that, though he earns $60 monthly salary with the Pacific Electric Company, he allows her but $12 monthly, which she is sick and dependent upon friends and relatives unable to care for her properly.

CONTEST OPENS. Robert Carthage's contest to have the court revoke the will of his brother, William D. Carthage, by which the better portion of the $20,000 estate was left to the widow, Mrs. Della Carthage, began with the selection of a jury in Judge Bordwell's court yesterday morning. The remainder of the day was spent in argument on the part of the contestants argued that before they present their evidence, the widow must first prove that she is sick and dependent upon friends and relatives unable to care for her properly.

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED. Evidence in Elias A. Sheddouly's suit against the Sprickels Bros. Commercial Company, to recover $1400, alleged due for the unlawful sale of merchandise stored with the corporation in August, 1906, came on yesterday. Judge Bordwell held that the evidence was properly submitted, and the case was set for trial.

NEW TRIAL DENIED. Judge Bordwell yesterday denied George A. Leighton's motion for a new trial in the suit brought against him by C. P. Leighton for $200 commission on a real estate sale negotiated by Devore for Leighton. Judge Bordwell held that the evidence showed that Leighton deliberately broke his agreement with Devore.

RECEPTION TONIGHT.

Midway Social Events at the Young Women's Christian Association, Prefacing Educational Opening.

The midway reception of the Young Women's Christian Association will be held tonight, and it will probably be a big affair. The committee consists of the education committee, the faculty of the evening school, and all the pupils of last term. There will be drills by two "gym" classes, a fencing bout between Prof. Maloney and Miss Holmstrom, and music by a harp soloist. On Friday evening there will be a concert by the Choral Club and the combined orchestras. These events precede the opening of the second term of the evening school next week.

EVASION, THE COURT HOLDS.

A bill in equity brought by the Mill & Luis County, Nevada, against the East Side Canal and Irrigation Company, was dismissed yesterday by Judge Wellborn in the United States Circuit Court. He holds that the company was organized in Nevada as a corporation, and that it was doing business in this state, for the purpose of being able to bring suit in the Federal court as a foreign corporation. This, the court holds, is merely a device and evasion of law.

LARGER JAIL THAN A N

Council Finding a Way to Keep Prisoners.

Temporary Improvements Cost Thousands.

Chief Gives His Idea of What's Needed.

Plans for building a stockade on the site of the old City Jail were rejected.

One thousand dollars was appropriated for temporary improvements to the City Jail.

The City Clerk was instructed yesterday to bid for a new jail, to be located within half a mile of the old jail.

He said that he has secured a square lot for a new jail, and is convinced that by building a new jail on this site, he can furnish temporary quarters for at least 150 more prisoners.

PENAL CODE POINTED.

Attorney Earl Rogers called attention of the Council to a section of the Penal Code which provides that an official guilty of his treatment of prisoners may be fined by a fine of $500 and committed to the State Prison. Mr. Rogers said that the Council is forcing the City Jail trustees to furnish the City Jail with inmates.

Delegations from the W.C.T.U. and the Church Federation urged the Mayor to take some action looking toward immediate relief. They said that they did not want to wait until a new jail was built.

IN REALTY CIRCLES.

Los Angeles Physician Buys Fine Residence in Alhambra—Other Sales and Exchanges.

H. S. Stewart, of the Southern Trust Company, has sold his residence in Alhambra, to Dr. E. R. Smith for a consideration of $18,500 cash. The sale was made by W. B. Merwin & Co. The property consists of a lot 150x200 feet
on Huntington Boulevard, nearly opposite J. A. Graves' home. It is improved with a two-story, thoroughly modern house, of twelve rooms, built about one year ago.

The same agency also has sold for
R. A. Brown to a local investor, a lot on the east side of Crocker street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, 25x100 feet, for a reported consideration of $10,000. The property is improved with two houses, which rent for a fair sum.
Daniel T. Althouse has sold to F. B.
Lewis the ten-room, two-story frame
residence at No. 1517 Western avenue,
lot 50x140 feet, for a stated consideration of $10,000. The house is new. The buyer will occupy it as a home. The sale was made through the agency of Althouse Bros.

G. W. Phelps has exchanged a 150-acre walnut grove, about two miles north of Garden Grove in Orange county, for a two-story brick bachelors'
first street, between Pine and Locust streets, Long Beach, owned by Stephen J. Both. Both are high-class properties. The ranch was held at a valuation of $122,000, and the block,
which is in the center of the business portion of Long Beach, was valued at $100,000. The difference of $22,000 was paid by Mr. Townsend. The exchange was negotiated by G. A. Oyster, of the Edward D. Silent exchange department.

Jones & Ryder Land Co. has sold
the five-room cottage at No. 1274 Sunset boulevard for A. C. Buck to G. G.
Gibson for a consideration of $2500. The property is on a lot 50x140 feet, and was bought for a home. The same company reports that it has closed several new building contracts throughout the city. A five-room cottage will be begun on Fifty-seventh street, near Moneta avenue, for H. H.
Ahrens. It will cost $3000. G. C. Kirby will build a six-room house at Columbia street, near the intersection of Fikes on Seneca street, which will cost $2000.

GOING AFTER
NEVADA ORES.

NEW SANTA FE RATES TO SMELTING CENTERS.

Senator Clark Gets Good Rates to Jerome—Other Smelters Profit.
Rates East, Too—Something Doing
at Greenwater—Have Guggenheims Lost Control?

The Santa Fe Railroad is going after the ore-handling business from Nevada camps, and is now publishing rates that will open the Goldfield district to the smelters at Jerome, Humboldt, Needles and Mayer.
The rates apply over both the Tonopah and Tidewater, and the Las Vegas and Tonopah, and it is said that the schedule has been determined upon at the special request of ex-Senator W.
Clark, president of the Salt Lake road, who hopes to profit by smelting Goldfield ores at his Jerome plant and thereby bring more profit to his Las Vegas and Tonopah branch.

So far, the rates have not been productive of any shipments, but this factor is explained, of course, by the fact that the camp has been, and still is, in the hands of the Guggenheims. It is expected that as soon as the conditions right themselves the business to the southern smelters will more than equal the present capacity.

The Needles smelter, owned by the Arizona Mining and Smelting Company, will be the chief beneficiary of the rates obtained from the Santa Fe by Senator Clark. The plant is a small one, with a capacity of 100 tons
a day, and has been very busy since it was erected. Silicious ores are not very common in its locality, and the opening of the Goldfield market will be of great benefit. The smelter at Mayer, which will also benefit by the new schedule, is a small one, and will cut little figure in absorbing the surplus output of the Nevada camps.
It is said that ex-Senator Clark has some big plans in his mind just now,
and has been attracted to the development of the smelting business by the shutting down of the Salt Lake plants.
The Salt Lake route, and its connection, the Las Vegas and Tonopah, had a monopoly on this business, and its cessation has made sad inroads in the road's receipts. Just how much silicious ore his Jerome plant is capable of absorbing cannot be ascertained here.

The schedule from Goldfield, Beatty
and Rhyolite, to Needles, Humboldt, Jerome and Mayer is on a graduated scale as follows: $20—$10; $20—$11;

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

CUT PRICE SUIT SALE

With a little judicious cutting "Commodore Days," the new play which received its first presentation on any stage at the Belasco last night, might easily be made into a first-class comedy. In its present condition crudities creep out from time to time, which, however, are quickly eliminated. The programme credits the play to Virginia Frame and Margaret Mayo. Frame is a graduate of Smith College, and taught English for a year or two after completing her course. Then she started work on her play, which, when finished, she sold to a New York agency. It was then passed over to Miss Mayo for revamping and production ready for production.

As far as technique is concerned, the play is lacking. There is too much talking without a purpose, and at times the action lags seriously in consequence. Dialogue also predominates. The name of the acts, a weakness which is little trimming by one skilled in dramatic writing, is quickly eliminated. The local color is there all right. The names of the different girls, their peculiarities, their foibles and weaknesses are brought out with artistic precision. In many places the very experience of the author lends to the work, or the time-honored tricks of the craft are missing. Robert Bosworth, in staging the play, has achieved the triumph of his local color. With a new and untold vehicle to struggle with, with no precedent to guide him, he has managed to turn a production that could not be surpassed by any one. The settings are beautiful, the light effects could be improved upon.

The incidental music was composed by Victor Scherzinger, who has shown himself fully able to handle the task. Miss Katherine Emmet as Kate and Miss Florence Smythe as Virginia Douglas have the most difficult roles, and they both manage to do all possible out of the parts. "Bugsy" otherwise Mary Mortens, Miss Fanchon Everhart portrays one of the most human characters in the play.

George Washington, Jr., is a typical Cohan piece, which means that it is a somewhat original mixture of comedy, song and dance, spiced plentifully with dashes of strongly melodic plot.

Cohan's flippancy, which is his deep-seated, is not deep enough for continuity of any graver sort—comes out in every scene. But it is manifest that a large proportion of his public does not care for that, and of course the mentor of Cohan's artistic conscience has always been the applause of the audience.

The motive centers about one George Rogers, son of a United States Senator, and you can't be wrong—has ideas about the girl question. He goes to the point of marrying a young feminine English nobleman, who afterward proves bogus. Father and son quarrel and part, and George is all but disowned, when he proves to his friends that he is a reconciler and general joy, while the inquirer of the matter is a reconciliation.

The specialties in this place bear the maker's stamp of novelty. And in all Cohan pieces, they are used with spirit and zest.

Enter DeHaven and Flora Parker, the company which opened at the Grand Opera-house last night, playing, respectively, the wonderful youth who is the centerpiece of plot and action, and the late southern girl who is his sweetheart.

Miss DeHaven is a dainty little southerner, and DeHaven, coming down to earth, is a real southern boy, and the audience is self-imposed.

Wills P. Sweetman, who in the last musical days was a power in the theatre, gives a life-like and broadly humorous impersonation of an itinerant actor.

There are a number of other actors of very acceptable sort, and a series of very strong numbers, chief of which is the familiar "Grand Old Flag," in which the author-composer has set a new standard of stanzas to a song equally diverse, but spirited.

The place derives its name from the supposed title taken by young Belasco.

With no changes in cast, "The Holy City" commenced its second week at the Auditorium last night.

Jan Kubelik, who is without doubt the foremost violin virtuoso in the world, will return from San Diego this evening, and will play his first local programme this year in Simpson Auditorium tonight.

Reports of Kubelik's work on this tour, it is of interest to quote Alfred Metzger's newly-written testimonial. In the last issue of the Musical Review, "Jan Kubelik was two years ago, as he is today, a violinist of a distinct individual type, apart from any other violinist known before the public. He possesses, in the first place, a wonderful ability to achieve the most brilliant musical feats with the least possible effort. To execute double stops in harmony and trill on these seems child's play to the colossal of the strings and he draws a clean, whistle-like sound from his instrument because of its pliancy. Every genuine virtuoso should have pretty nearly according to his own inspiration so many people to whom Kubelik has improved music in an addition of a few meaty and classical compositions for which he is lacking on his programmes.

Two years ago the Kubelik programme was exclusively devoted to the works of the romantic composers—the most complicated technicalities—this year Kubelik has wisely alternated these acrobatic feats with works of the romantic composers.

QUICK RESPONSE. These People Send Prompt Relief These Reported to Be in Sore Distress. A cheering thought that the Los Angeles public respond so readily to distress. Many cases of distress may be that never reach the general public, but when the response is quick and generous, the relief is immediate.

Shopping by Telephone

The majority of articles advertised today are of such nature that they may be satisfactorily ordered by telephone, as may many other lines not mentioned. So, if you see anything (as you're more than likely to) that you'd very much like, if you were only down town, just step to the 'phone, ask for Exchange 36, and get the department at which such articles are sold. If our selection isn't entirely satisfactory you always have the privilege of returning goods and exchanging them for those that do please you.

But if you're coming down town, you'll find that rainy days are extraordinarily good shopping days; because salespeople have more time to devote to you, and you can make leisurely selection. The Coulter store is well lighted, well warmed and ventilated; there are rest rooms, writing desks and stationery, public telephones, and many other conveniences to add to your comfort.

Pequot Sheets--The World's Finest

On Special Sale Today and Wednesday

There is always a standard by which things are judged. When it comes to sheets, comparison is usually made of others with the Pequot brand. "These sheets are equal to Pequot Sheets," you'll be told. But counterfeit dollars aren't just as good as real dollars; neither are other sheets just as good as the Pequot sheets.

So, when we offer you these famous sheets, finished with a three-inch hem at top and a one-inch hem at foot, in four or five different sizes, at less than the material by the yard will cost you, it's certainly high time to be buying liberally. Many of your neighbors already have done so—the opportunity is open to you for today and tomorrow.

Printing Prices That It Pays To Pay

Doubtless you desire to patronize a printing establishment where you can safely send work regularly, day after day, without the annoyance and expense of running after estimates on each separate job.

You realize that any printing establishment can quote a low price on one order for the purpose of coaxing further business.

But you do not want a low price on an occasional order, and high prices on the balance; you wish a uniformly low price, today, tomorrow, every day.

Lowest possible prices consistent with correct printing have built up this great plant.
